

Organization 2

Name of Organization

Phone

Address

Length of Nominee's Service:

Frequency of Service: (hours per month)

Description of service: Describe what service the nominee provided, how the nominee is involved in the organization, and the results of the nominee's service.

Use this space to describe anything extraordinary about the nominee's service: Include what is inspiring, courageous, unusual or innovative about the nominee's service.

FACOA's Mission

The Farmington Area Commission on Aging helps toward the betterment of daily living for older adults with the mission of promoting their well-being and dignity through education and advocacy.

The Commission examines social attitudes, creates community awareness, establishes a climate for living independently and encourages recognition for their contribution to the past and present.

A Consumer Protection Committee is an integral part of the commission keeping the community informed about potential fraud and scams.

Use this page to continue or add information